Says They Told Him They Would Hound Him if He Didn't Join Bosses' Union and Threatened a Strike Against a Builder for Whom He Was Doing Work.

George W. Keane of 164 Third avenue, a representative of the Progressive Marble Polishers and Bed Rubbers Union, and John Krulisk of 1354 First avenue, a delegate of the Empire Marble Cutters and Setters Union, were held in $300 bail each vesterday by Magistrate Droege in the Tombs police court on charges of conspiracy. They are accused of telling Charles Parsons, a contractor on East 184th street, that they would "hound him to death" if he did not join the bosses' association of which Keane is also a representative. It is also alleged that they threatened to call a strike among all the employees of Emanuel M. Krulewitch, a ilder of 1980 Seventh avenue, in case Krulewitch employed Parsons.

Krulewitch said last night that he had been approached by some men whose names he didn't remember who wanted him to break off business relations with Parsons. He told them that Parsons's work satisfied him and that they would have to see Parsons. Krulewitch said that he understood that the men had threatened Parsons and that Parsons had laid the matter before the Dis-

Krulewitch has had so many troubles with unions that he didn't pay any particular attention to the Farsons matter. He is building a row of apartments at St. Nicholas avenue and 147th street and has given the contract for the carpentry work to Fogel & Schwartz of Ninety-ninth street and Lex-

& Schwartz of Ninety-ninth street and Lexington avenue.

A man who said that he was a walking delegate of the Carpenters; and Joiners Union came to him in January after the work was started and told him that he would have to employ equal numbers of Hebrews and gentiles or face a strike. This matter, Krulewitch says, was arranged with Fogel & Schwartz, but it was only a short time before the delegate came around again to complain that Fogel & Schwartz were not living up to the agreement, and last Friday

living up to the agreement, and last Friday
the men on the job were called out.
When Krulewitch asked for an explanation he was directed, he says, to go to the committee rooms of the union in East Fiftyninth street. There, he says, he met officers of the union who, after heating about the the union who, after beating about the bush for a time, admitted that they intended to put Fogel & Schwartz out of business and that orders to this effect had come from the headquarters of the union. Krule-witch refused to deal with the union, and in spite of the strike fifty of the union car-penters went back on the work under Fogel & Schwartz last Saturday. Krulewitch says that the men who returned to work were fined $100 each and will be expelled from the union.

MINING ENGINEERS MEET. Opening Session of the Ninety-fourth Annual

can Institute of Mining Engineers began last night at the United Engineering Society building, at 29 West Thirty-ninth street. Although this session is primarily for the reading and discussion of technical papers of interest to the members, several subjects of general interest are to be treated. Two popular subjects which are to come up at the meeting to-day are the Government tests of steel made at the Watertown, Mass., arsenal, which have been carried on under a Congressional appropriation for that purpose. In the discussion following the paper by James E. Howard, engineer of the tests, the complaints of the railroad companies against the steel rail manufacturing concerns because of the big percentage of breakage of rails and the reply of the manufacturers that the railroads are not buying rails of sufficient weight to withstand the loads now imposed on them will figure extensively.

A discussion of mine disasters with a atudy of their ca papers by Joseph A. Holmes and Walter C. selling of Washington, D. C., will take place at the meeting to-night. Thomas H. Leggett of New York speaks on "Mining Conditions on the Rand," and a paper on the briquetting plant at Bankhead, Alberta, will be read by Edward W. Parker of Wash-

The feature of the opening session last night was the paper by Dr. R. W. Raymond, secretary of the American Institute of Mining Engineers, on "Humboldt and Swedenborg, Mining Engineers." Dr. Raymond said that in many if not all departments of Humboldt's cyclopædio knowledge and worldwide exploration and study the effect of histraining as a geologist and mining engineer may be traced. "Emanuel Swedenborg was one of the

"Emanuel Swedenborg was one of the foremost if not the very foremost of all mining engineers and metallurgists who have ever lived," said Dr. Raymond. "In his versatility, his eager questioning of all natural phenomena, his combination of practical knowledge and skill with theoretical knowledge and skill with theoretical speculations and his percential practical knowledge and skill with theoretical speculations and his perennial flow of spontaneous suggestions for the benefit of his own fellow men he resembled our own Benjamin Franklin."

Concerning Swedenborg's mechanical inventions Dr. Raymond said that a letter written by him in 1714 showed that he had on hand the following inventions:

For a submarine ship, "which can do great damage to the ships of the enemy," a portable siphon for raising great quantities of water, a machine "driven by fire, which will put water in motion" (a steam engine?)

of water, a machine "driven by fire, which will put water in motion" (a steam engine?) new pumps of various designs, new airguns, a new musical instrument, "by means of which one who is quite unacquainted with music may execute all kinds of airs that are marked on paper by notes," a water clock and a flying carriage, showing "the possibility of remaining suspended in the air and of being conveyed through it."

Dr. Raymond spoke of the statements by Swedenborg of great doctrines of modern science, such as the atomic theory, the solar origin of the earth and the planets, the undulatory theory of light, the nebular hypothesis, the recognition of heat as a mode of motion, and the connection between magnetism and electricity. As the principal reason why Swedenborg's books and mode of motion, and the connection between magnetism and electricity. As the principal reason why Swedenborg's books and treatises, published in Latin, have not attracted the attention they deserve from modern students, Dr. Raymond said, they were made at a time when the thought of mankind was engrossed in war, and because "when in middle life he turned to theology and believed himself to be in continual communication with the inhabitants of the spirit world, those who did not accept his revelations were inclined also to reject his scientific observations and theories.

The members will inspect the Pennsylvania tunnel from the Thirty-third street excavation to First avenue, and the Manhattan shaft of the Pennsylvania tunnel at Thirty-third street and Eleventh avenue to-morrow, and on Friday will inspect the Hudson Companies Terminal Building and the tunnel approaches, and will then go to Jayonne on tugs to visit the Standard Dil plant. They will also inspect the new Astoria plant of the Consolidated Gas Company.

Company. ATTACKED BY UNION MINERS. Western Federationists Assault Nevada

Legislator Who Voted for Police Bill. GOLDFIELD, Nev., Feb. 18.—Thomas Tighe, an Assemblyman of this county, was set upon by three members of the Western Federation of Miners, and in the struggie that followed was badly cut about the face.

He fought off his assailants with a revolver, which he used as a club, the miners getting the worst of the encounter.
Enmity was aroused by the fact that Tighe had supported the State police bill in the special session of the Legislature.

THE ALTAMONT APARTMENTS IN HARLEM CHANGE HANDS.

The Meteor Realty and Construction Co. Takes Profit on a New Eleven Story Loft Building in West 17th Street -Sale of a Prospect Place Dwelling.

The brokerage transactions reported yeserday were few in number and of the commonplace order. They included, however, the first sale of a business structure made public in some time, a newly completed eleven story loft building in West Seventeenth street. The schedule of properties offered in the auction room included a dozen items, but there was no effective competition and nearly all of the parcels were either bid in or taken over by plaintiffs in foreclosure suits. No plans for new constructions were filed in Manhattan. In The Bronx building permits were issued for the erection of several inexpensive dwellings.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—LONG ISLAND | REAL ESTATE FOR SALE—LONG ISLAND

The successful men of America are those who look far ahead of the multitude and create something for which there will be a demand. A group of the most successful financiers, guided by the wisdom and judgment of Senator Reynolds, are transforming the finest ocean front property, but 24 miles from New York, into what is destined to become the Brighton of America.

Nature has done its work marvellously well at Long Beach, and coupled with the initial expenditure of $8,000,000 which will be expended on plans, conceived of by the ablest engineers of New York, Long Beach will soon be appreciated and the public will realize the far-sightedness of this company.

The improvements now under way at Long Beach include the 50-foot wide boardwalk 51 miles long, electric light and gas conduits, grading and macadamizing of streets, sidewalks and curbing, and a complete sewer system. An army of mechanics and laborers are now at work building a magnificent casino, bungalows, cottages, etc. New Booklet mailed on request.

Upon request we will send you tickets for our Special Train leaving Long Island City and Flatbush and Nostrand Av. Stations, Brooklyn, next Sunday afternoon at 1:30.

Representatives will be at Long Island City and Flatbush Av. Stations with tickets for visitors.
